

Most of the fossil fuel carbon humans have emitted in the past 50 years of industrial growth ARE STILL IN THE ATMOSPHERE. Until we STOP emitting carbon AND start capturing it, there will still be too much co2 in the atmosphere for a stable climate. I lost my home in a wildfire in 2020. This is personal!
<https://www.climate.gov/news-features/understanding-climate/climate-change-atmospheric-carbon-dioxide>